3) Booking and planning details (who did what)

- Who suggested the trip first?
- Who booked the hotel/Airbnb?

- Did you rent a car? Who reserved it?
- Where are confirmations stored (email inbox, app, screenshots)?

4) Payments and finances (keep simple and truthful)

- Who paid for the main travel costs (hotel, flights, car rental)?
- Did you split costs? If yes, how (one paid hotel, the other paid food, etc.)?
- Did you use a credit card, debit card, cash, points, or gift cards?
- Do you still have receipts or bank statements tied to the trip (if needed)?

5) Lodging details

- Did you stay in a hotel, Airbnb, with family/friends, or multiple places?
- What was the name of the hotel/area (if you remember) or the neighborhood/city part?
- How many nights did you stay?
- Who checked in and whose name was on the reservation?

6) Transportation details

- Where did you eat (restaurant name or type of food) and who chose it?
- Any photos you took—where are they stored (phone album, Google Photos/iCloud)?
- Any memorable moment you both remember clearly (funny, stressful, sweet)?

8) People involved (if traveling with others)

- Did you travel alone as a couple or with others?
- If with others: who came with you and why?
- Did you visit any family members during the trip? Which relatives?

9) Frequency and travel habits

- Who is more likely to plan trips?

10) Upcoming travel plans

- Do you have any upcoming travel planned? Where and when (approx)?
- Who is planning/booking it?
- Have you bought tickets or reserved lodging yet?
- Where are confirmations saved?

11) “Reality check” questions (recent and specific)

- What was the last trip you took together and what was the purpose?
- Who paid for the lodging on the last trip?
- What’s one specific place you visited (name/location) on the last trip?
- What photos from that trip can you quickly find on your phone right now?

Tip: It helps to line up trip dates with real proof (emails, photos, receipts). Don’t guess—use your phone to confirm.
